It is believed by Louisiana historians that beignets were first introduced to New Orleans in 1727 by the Ursuline Nuns of France. These delicious fried pastries are topped with plenty of powdered sugar!

The Lost Cajun.

GRIFF'S STORY

I HAVE BEEN ASKED A THOUSAND TIMES, "HOW DID A CAJUN GET LOST IN THE MOUNTAINS OF COLORADO?" AND I'M ALWAYS HAPPY TO ANSWER.

Hi, I'm Raymond Griffin, "The Lost Cajun" from Barataria, Louisiana, and to answer the question, I usually tell people that I drank too many beers and got lost!

The truth is that Belinda, my late wife, and I had dreamed of living in the Rockies and opening a little gumbo shop for years. For 15 years we owned and operated a fishing lodge in Louisiana-Griffin Fishing Lodge-then came Katrina, then Rita, then Ike and Gustav and on top of that, the big oil spill. What a mess! It was hard to leave but we had just had enough. The first little gumbo shop opened in October of 2010 in a tiny building in Frisco, Colorado and today people travel from around the world to experience the down-home atmosphere and the authentic Cajun food that we serve.

In 2012, a friend and fishing buddy saw what Belinda and I had started, and we decided to open the second one in Breckenridge, CO. The rest, as people say, is history! Over the years, people from all over the country have tried and fallen in love with our food and I am proud to say that we are now franchising nationwide! It's not just the food people love, it is our culture of courtesy and respect that we have created, along with some of the best service that you have ever experienced!

Our gumbos take 4 to 6 hours to cook, like all our special dishes – red beans and rice, crawfish étouffée and lobster bisque – there are no short cuts. It's got to be cooked slow, with a lot of care. Our seafood is like none that you have ever tasted, and the beignets are just like the ones you get in New Orleans, maybe just a wee bit better!

We now have restaurants open or coming soon in these great states: Colorado, Tennessee, Texas, North Carolina, South Carolina, Mississippi, Florida and California. Please visit thelostcajun.com to find a location near you!

As we say in Louisiana, "make a pass" and say hello, feel the down-home atmosphere and "pass a good time!"

See y'all soon,
Griff, "The Lost Cajun"
